The Apprenticeship to Runecasting

An exciting workshop showing the novice the gift of this magical alphabet. We will be using the Futhark set, which is 25 staves (24 symbol staves and one blank staff). One of the most enchanting things about runes, is how easily one can learn to read them for yourself as well as others. This workshop is based on a my book of runes written many years ago. Each participant will receive a pdf copy of my book and some great insight.

You will need to invest on a set of Futhark Runes. The Futhark set will have 25 staves in total. You may find that wood, or stone works a tad easier. Clay runes do tend to chip. Wise to have a cloth to read upon.
